Community Recreation Programs: The purpose of Community Recreation Programs is to provide unique, affordable and accessible activities to the citizens and visitors of the Omaha so they can have a healthy, positive lifestyle that is essential to their quality of life.

Any individual, or groups of individuals who feel they are being discriminated against based on race, sex, national origin, age, disability, or religion in the programs or facilities of the Parks, Recreation and Public Property Department may file a complaint by contacting the Director of Parks, Recreation and Public Property Department at 444-5900 and/or the Director of the Human Relations Department at 444-5055 and/or the Personnel Director at 444-5307. The City of Omaha is committed to supporting the Americans With Disabilities Act. If you require assistance with registration or to actively participate in our programs, please call each respective phone number.

Brochure Distribution

This brochure is published four times per year during the months of May for summer programs, August for fall programs, and November for winter programs and February for spring programs. All four publications are available at City Recreation facilities and Libraries. It is also available at www.cityofomaha.org/parks

Class Registration

Each instructor establishes their registration times and procedures. Participants should contact the instructor for information on how to register. In some cases class enrollments are limited. Patrons are served on a first-come, first served basis. All Class schedules and fees are subject to change.

Payment of Fees/ Refunds

Fees must be paid at the time of registration or in some cases prior to the first class. Checks are payable to: City of Omaha or in some cases directly to the instructor. Checks made payable to the City of Omaha are subject to a $30 returned check fee. Refund policy varies from class to class. Participants should ask instructor about refund policy. For some classes a $10 administrative fee will be charged if a participant withdraws from a class. An administrative fee will not be charged if the City cancels a class. All requests for refunds must be in writing and accompanied by your registration receipt.

Facility Rental Information

Are you planning a Birthday Party, Family Reunion or Reception? Maybe you are looking for a gym to use for basketball or volleyball. How about a neighborhood pool party? Many of our facilities have meeting rooms, kitchens, game rooms, etc. Our facilities are available and our staff is ready to help. Our facilities are available for rental during and after hours of operation. This includes evenings and weekends. Our Centers are perfect for...

- * Birthday Parties
- * Business Meetings
- * Anniversaries
- * Wedding & Baby Showers
- * Family Reunions
- * Sports Practices and more

Contact the Facility Supervisors for more information.
